

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MODIFICATION OF CONIBEAR TRAPS

(Models #220 and #330 only)

Jaws of Model #220 Conibear traps should be bent  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch, while jaws of Model #330 Conibear traps should be bent  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch.

- This modification:
- takes under 5 minutes per trap
  - increases speed and humanness of kill
  - decreases size of trap - gives better strike location, surge catch
  - by hastening speed of kill, pelt is not rubbed by possible struggling of animal
  - in #220, #120 models, ensures greater ease of handling, as springs do not jump around corner of trap frame.
  - is recommended by the Ontario Trappers' Association, especially for racoon, marten, fisher, beaver and otter.

PRODUCTION CONIBEAR: ISET1

MODIFIED CONIBEAR: ISPRING.
NOTE HOW BENT JAWS
NOW CLOSE TIGHTLY.

ADVISORY SECTION

The Fish and Wildlife Branch reserves the right to remove nuisance animals from Crown land, whether or not the Crown land in question is under trap-line registration.

Registered trap-line tenure within Provincial parks is subject to the provisions of the Park Act and Park Regulations.

Trapping within ecological reserves is prohibited.

You are reminded that under sections 231 and 402 of the Criminal Code of Canada it is an offence for anyone to wilfully cause or permit to be caused unnecessary pain, suffering, or injury to an animal or injury to any person.

As approved humane traps become available, trapping regulations restricting or prohibiting the use of certain other traps in the capture of various animals, will be brought into effect.

TRAPPERS CODE OF ETHICS

The Fish and Wildlife Branch acknowledges and supports the British Columbia Registered Trappers Association recommended code of conduct:

- (1) Feeding stations should be maintained to keep non-fur-bearing wildlife away from set traps.
- (2) Muskrat should be trapped in relation to their food supply.
- (3) Each trapper should assist landowners in the vicinity of his trap-line in removing nuisance fur-bearers. Always gain the permission of private landowners before trapping.
- (4) The carcasses of diseased animals should be reported, and where possible, submitted promptly to the attention of the Fish and Wildlife Branch.
- (5) All leg-hold traps must be examined frequently in order to minimize the suffering of caught animals.
- (6) Humane traps designed to kill quickly should be used in trapping fur-bearing animals whenever possible.
- (7) Warning signs should be placed at trap-line access points when killing traps are in use.
- (8) Raccoon, marten, and fisher should be trapped only with humane killing traps.
- (9) Your Provincial and local trapper's associations deserve your support.
